NOTE

The Astronomical Observations made by Capt. J.H. Simpson Topog.l Eng.rs on his late Surveys in Utah between Fort Bridger and Carson Valley place those points and the whole of his routes (U.H. further East than where they are located on the map.

So also the Astronom.l Observ.ns made by Capt. J.N. Macomb Topog.l Eng.rs on his late Surveys in New Mexico between Santa Fe and the Colorado River throw the whole of his work (CO. further East than where it is placed on the map.

The Engraving of the map was already so far advanced when the above information was furnished to the Bureau that it was too late to make the necessary alterations.

Corrections and additions in reference to Rail Roads in California &c. were made in January 1862 — in accordance with a Resolution of the U.S. Senate of 18th Jan.y 1861.

NOTE

Waggon Roads are indicated thus ——

The Routes of the various exploring parties are shown by broken lines.
